

CASE STUDY //

Tameside College Engineering Block

Similar to the previous scheme, Tameside Engineering block was a full mechanical installation inclusive of plant room installation, heating system, cooling system, domestic hot water services, boosted cold water services including Cat 5 to science labs, full gas services installation to plant room and lab equipment, 4 male and 4 female toilet block installations.

Again this scheme was delivered on time and to the highest standard.